

Here are 15 sample questions derived from the provided documents. These are divided into three categories: questions from individual documents and comparison questions.

---

Questions from Tesla's Document

1. What is Tesla's mission statement, and how does it guide the company's operations?
  2. What are the two reportable segments Tesla operates under, and what does each include?
  3. How does Tesla's approach to sustainability reflect in its automotive and energy segments?
  4. What were Tesla's total revenues for the fiscal year 2023?
  5. How does Tesla's Full Self-Driving (FSD) technology contribute to its product differentiation?
-

Questions from Google's Document

1. What are the two primary segments Alphabet Inc. reports under, and what do they encompass?
  2. How has Alphabet utilized AI to enhance its products and services?
  3. What was the total R&D expenditure by Alphabet over the past five years?
  4. How does Google Cloud support businesses in adopting AI technologies?
  5. What is Gemini, and how does it align with Google's mission to deliver responsible AI?
-

Questions from Uber's Document

1. What are the three main segments Uber operates, and what does each include?
  2. How does Uber's "Super App" enhance user experience across its offerings?
  3. What legal and regulatory challenges does Uber face in expanding its operations globally?
  4. What differentiates Uber Freight from traditional logistics providers?
  5. How has Uber integrated advertising into its platform to provide additional value for merchants and consumers?
-

Comparative Questions Across Documents

1. Compare how Tesla and Google incorporate AI into their respective business operations.
2. What are the key differences in sustainability approaches between Tesla and Uber?
3. Compare Tesla's automotive segment with Uber's mobility segment. How do their goals and business models differ?
4. How do Google Cloud and Tesla's energy storage solutions address global challenges?
5. Compare how regulatory challenges impact Uber and Tesla in their respective industries.